"We need to organise this a bit better" argued john ,counting out they're savings,so a list was written

"ahh,now for our second victim"grinned john rubbing his hands

"a closet case,sure,we'll out him,his name will be in all the dailies"laughed mike,so once again names and numbers were exchanged,they turned up at the guys house,this time with a spectacular mass mutilation on they're mind

"come on in ,john,mike"said the closet queer,tim,he carefully ushered him in them away from the prying neighbours,

Mix some school glue with powder paint to make shiny paint. Add a few drops of glue to the paint, stir it, and so on, until your paint becomes glossy.

Now give P.C. Jones a shiny blue uniform with shiny black buttons, belt and hat. Doesn't P.C. Jones look smart

Time to play!

"for setting us free", they had taken along an axe, which was quite usefull f
-or chopping off the policemen's head, john stuck it on the railings of the
