HUGS N' KISSES...

This book couldn't have been put together without the following DYNAMITE women: For support & encouragement, Shelby; for valuable technical info, Lyn & Joyce; For love and good feelings, Barbara, Terry & Chris; for more than can be put into words, Sue. And for all the really fine sisters I haven't the space for, but you know who you are, and for all the really fine sisters I just haven't yet met. And last but definitely not least, for doing all the writing & drawing & everything else...
