When this is, that is;

this arising, that arises.

When this is not, that is not;

this ceasing,

that ceases.

phs of an a

violence

that arises within oneself, does it

arise to one's profit

or to one's loss?

The sage tells the king that fines, bonds and death for the wrongdoers would be self-defeating.
Punishment is not the right path.
On the contrary, it would increase the malady
because the root causes remained untouched,

"Just as I am

so are they,

just as they are so am I"

Victory breeds hatred,
The defeated live in pain.
Happily the peaceful live,
Giving up victory and defeat.

He prayed for the World, no Hate in his Heart for Anyone.

Please Help us

All tremble at violence,
All fear death,
Comparing oneself with others
One should neither kill nor cause others to kill.
