this postage stamp issued by the czech republic shows a young man dressed as a woman, with rose in mouth, riding a horse. it is to honor the "kings ride", a 16th century tradition in vlčnov, south moravia, where young men entering the army take part in the procession. the boy portraying the king must be a male virgin. the festival commemorates the escape from battle in the middle ages of a young king. he dressed as a woman, and carries the rose in his mouth so that even his voice will not betray him.

QUEER ACTION FIGURES

STONEWALL

WAS A RIOT

not a cocktail.

A CALL FOR ACTION IN THE SPIRIT OF THE STONEWALL REBELLION

From Clinton's betrayal of promises on gay rights to the refusal to take on the AIDS epidemic, to anti-gay ballot initiatives and outright "queer bashing"—we are under attack.

But we are also seeing a growing anger and willingness to fight back. Only by expressing this through collective resistance can we win our liberation—not through appeals to the institutions that oppress us.

"Lesbian and Gay Pride Day 1994" will mark

the 25th anniversary of the Stonewall Rebellion. People from across the US and around the world will be coming to New York to take part in the march and other activities. This mobilization, like the March on Washington, shows our numbers, but focuses on the demands of a narrow segment of the lesbian and gay population.

The Stonewall rebellion was an action of the oppressed fighting back from below. Butch and Femme, transgendered people, street haw kers and drag queens—all colors—fought back against the police raid on the Stonewall bar. The rebellion lasted several nights and changed the course of queer politics.

Many of the liberatory aims of the Stonewall rioters have yet to be realized. Join us in reclaiming the festive defiance of Stonewall Now!

GROUP SEX EVENING AT THE MONASTERY

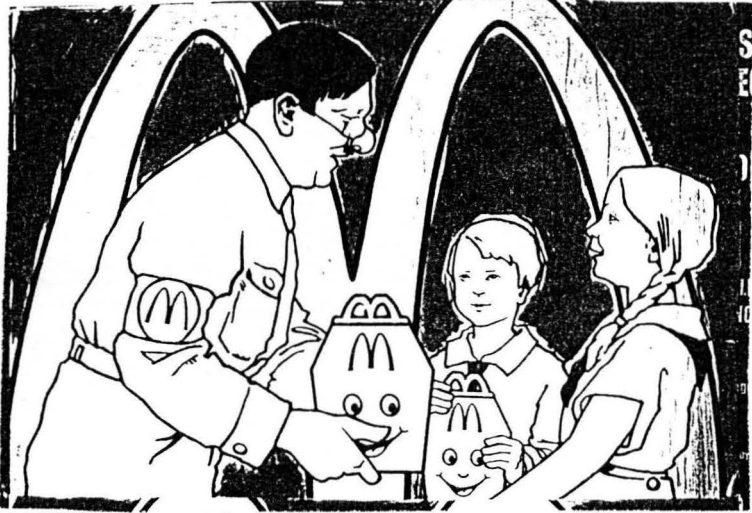

these postage stamps, just several centuries old prove the very forgotten history of world sexuality and reproductive habits. in those times there was happiness and freedom as the world was busy learning and progressing for the better of all, and we were all brothers and sisters in homosexuality. we had true love for all and our communities and our most beloved mother earth. there was a place where the people that chose to be the special procreators went to ensure that we had the best interests of the planet at heart. everything went very well for over 2000 years. then the people that inhabited the straits settlements, the blessed birthing lands, became sick and corrupted by superstition of those that sought power and greed. these evil-doers had the idea of breeding millions of innocent children and indoctrinating them into the false beliefs of their selfish, greedy, dominating, destructive ways, until there were quickly hundreds of millions and they had to disperse the planet over, and with the hate they were taught, destroyed the nature and people loving homosexuals that peacefully co-existed with mother earth. now we are their biggest threat because they are lost and fear the truth that we know; that with our love of our sisters and brothers and our respected gods and goddesses of the earth and sky, it is from our hearts and minds, LOVE!

Vlasta and her tribe of women.

In the 7th or 8th century Prague was founded by Queen Libuše. When she died, the liberated women of the Czech lands refused to submit to the new patriarchy, and set up their own proto-feminist, separatist colony on the other side of the river. They had many victories over the men, under the leadership of Vlasta. They decided to ensnare their warrior leader, Otirad, by tying maiden Šarka to a tree. He took her to be in distress, and the women were successful. However, Šarka fell in love with Otirad in that brief moment, and threw herself off a cliff. Later all the women were killed.

POST GAYNESS??!!

It seems some bourgeois pseudo-intellectuals in places like Chelsea, New York City, think we have come to the age of "post gay", where it doesn't seem to matter about the struggle anymore, because they have desired goals met: to live in a gay ghetto, go to gay gyms, gay cafés, have a gay lawyer... The editor of Out magazine, one callous James Callard espouses such crap. "it is like our new Jerusalem, where we don't need our exclusive space anymore..." It is naïve of him to think it is the same for everyone in the USA that is gay or lesbian. Author Mike Signorelli says we don't have the luxury to say we don't want to be labelled, because we are being labelled. When the leader of the senate, Trent Lott stands on the floor of congress and attacks us^s sick people that can be cured, we don't have a choice to say we are not involved in this struggle. The director of an organisation involved in the focus of gay rights in schools says, "those of us that have the privilege of not being oppressed on a daily basis have a moral obligation to help the vast majority of our community which is still oppressed to escape that oppression. It is irresponsible and selfish of those of us that don't face daily oppression to ignore the fact that it is still the reality for the vast majority of our fellow countrymen."

Bangor, Maine, USA

A young man, John Deering, made the big step of moving away from home for the first time. He was to move in with some friends. When his mother, a peculiar christian visited him at his new apartment she demanded that John move back home immediately, saying the apartment was too tidy and full of antiques; these men must be homosexuals! We don't know what his father thought, as he spent all his days and nights in a big chair in front of the television.

A referendum has been called by eight village councillors to oust the mayor for neglect of duties. They say it has nothing to do with the fact that the democratically elected mayor has announced he is to undergo a sex-change operation, and has started wearing womens clothes and make-up, and has asked to be called Frau Lintner.

Asley MacIsaac is a young, brilliant fiddle player from nova scotia, canada. he also happens to be very out, in his folk-punk way, and is still acclaimed as one of the best players in north america. he is quite sexy, and if you want to know more about him you should get his CD "hi, how are you today." from raucous to ballads, he is unique! A zine called "King of the Fairies" is put out by Glendon in Toronto, Canada. He's on a break right now, but about 9 back issues still available.

KING of The FAIRIES

Thank you and kisses to Wojtek Krawczyk of the Polish punk band Homomiltia for letting me use his original title.

Thank you and kisses to you, dear viewer, for having endured my eclectic collection of such images as you have just seen. I look forward to hearing from you, yes, you, to know what you think, and to know just how far and wide this journal makes it around our planet. Remember, things are getting better and can only do so with the continuation of the struggle on all fronts, so we must support each other, and to make freedoms possible for all our brothers and sisters the world over. We can never be too armed with our moral bombs, our lethal humor, our bullet political aims, and our armies of lovers. The Homomiltia!
