WE CAN NO LONGER STAND IDLY BY WHILE WE ARE ROBBED OF OUR MOUTHS, OUR ANUSES, OUR SEXUAL MEMBERS, OUR GUTS, OUR VEINS...JUST SO THAT THEY CAN BE USED AS PARTS FOR A MACHINE WHICH PRODUCES CAPITOL, EXPLOITATION, AND THE FAMILY.

WE CAN NO LONGER STAND IDLY BY WHILE THEY CONTROL, REGULATE, AND OCCUPY OUR MUCOUS MEMBRANES, THE PORES OF OUR SKIN, THE ENTIRE SURFACE OF OUR BODY WITH THEIR POLLUTION. WE CAN NO LONGER NOT "COME" OR HOLD BACK OUR SHIT, OUR SALIVA, OUR ENERGY ACCORDING TO THEIR LAWS WITH THEIR MINOR, TOLERATED INFRACTIONS. WE WANT TO EXPLODE THE FRIGID, INHIBITED, MORTIFIED BODY THAT CAPITAL/HETEROSEX/ALLTHOSEISMS-ISM WANT SO DESPERATELY TO MAKE OF OUR LIVING BODY.

WE WANT TO GET RID OF THE SEXUAL SEGREGATION. WE WANT TO BE RID OF THE CATEGORIES OF MAN AND WOMAN, GAY AND STRAIGHT, POSSESSOR AND POSSESSED, GREATER AND LESSER, MASTER AND SLAVE. WE WANT INSTEAD TO BE OMNISEXUAL, AUTONOMOUS, MOBILE AND MULTIPLE HUMAN BEINGS WITH VARYING DIFFERENCES WHO CAN INTERCHANGE DESIRES, GRATIFICATIONS, ECSTASIES, AND TENDER EMOTIONS WITHOUT REFERRING BACK TO TABLES OF SURPLUS VALUE OR POWER STRUCTURES THAT AREN'T ALREADY IN THE RULES OF THE GAME.

THE MYSTIC RITES OF ENNUI THAT FAGGOTS CELEBRATE

I've never quite understood the word "homophobia." There is no other, but many people don't fear queer culture (ahem) - they simply and without apology hate it/us. The idea of same-sex sex gives them the creeps. They want us out of the schools, the barracks, the boardrooms -- preferably out of the country. I heard someone say that "it's the same old scene, because terror and terrorism are at the center of our spirituality. Unfortunately people don't seem to realize that this terror - of the body, of sex, of passion, of AIDS - manifests itself in homophobia/hatred misogyny, bigotry, repression and ultimately violence."

(I'll use the word faggot, but feel free to insert lesbian, bisexual, transgender, ...queer...,etc.)

The trappings of power in this society exist within a "norm" that is white, male, thin, young, heterosexual and christian. We who are outside the power often identify one way we are different and assume that's the primary cause of all oppression. For the most part, faggots focus on their oppression as gay men and ignore differences of race, class and age. There is a presumption of "all the same"-ness covered by the word "community" that doesn't exist.

As white faggots ignore their built in privilege of whiteness and define "queerness" on their terms and experience only, the gay men of Color, for example, become "other" - the outsiders who's experiences are too different to understand.

Bad enough. Faggots are also called upon to stretch across the "sexuality gap" and educate straights about our lives and needs. It is the responsibility of the oppressed to teach the oppressor their mistakes. This is an old and powerful tool of all oppressors to keep the oppressed occupied with the masters' concerns. Then we ask gay men of Color (or lesbians, bisexuals, transgenderists, leatherfags, etc.) to educate us white fags. This diverts energy and attention and is a repetition of racist, divisionist patriarchal thought.

Difference must not be tolerated - it must be viewed as necessary -- a source from which our creativity can spring. Only within a dependence on each other's different strengths - acknowledged and equal - can the power to seek new ways of being in this world blossom and generate, and be a source for the courage to act where there are no rules.

DISLIKES NEW PERSONALS POLICY

I AM WRITING IN RESPONSE to your new policy regarding Gay Magazine's personals ads. Apparently you have decided that readers will no longer be allowed to place ads with terms like I/O, Fr, Cr, or safe-sex.

I disagree with your assumption that any ad which includes these references automatically constitutes "sexual objectification." Furthermore, a number of terms that I take issue with continue to appear on a regular basis: no fags, no ferns, GWM (emphasis on "W"), straight-appearing a must, etc. (Issue 197).

I've also noticed that commercial advertisers are still allowed to place large, expensive ads for things like RAW PHONE FUN, SLEAZE LINES, MAN TO MAN FULL BODY "MASSAGE," FEMALE AND SHE-MALES AVAILABLE 7 DAYS A WEEK, GENUINE AMYL CARBURETOR CLEANER, etc. (also from Issue 197).

Pardon me, Clark, but aren't you being just a little hypocritical about all this?

David Dorn

We have all been programmed to respond to our human differences with fear and loathing and to handle these differences in one of three ways: ignore them, copy it if we think they are dominant, or destroy them if we think we can dominate them. But we have no patterns for relating across our human differences as equals. As a result, those differences have been misnamed and misused in the service of separation and confusion.

Yes, there are very real differences between us of race, age, sex, etc. But it is not those differences between us that are separating us - it's our refusal to recognize those differences and to examine them.

Those of us who are outside the circle of this society's definition of acceptable; those of us who are queer, poor, African American, older, female know that survival is not an academic issue. It is learning how to stand alone, unpopular, sometimes beaten and hated, and how to make common cause with those others identified as outside the structures in order to define a world in which we can flourish. It is learning how to take our differences and make them into strengths.

As for assimilationists - of all races, ages, sexualpreferences and genders: "The master's tools will never dismantle the master's house." We may be allowed to beat them temporarily at their own game, but they will never allow us to bring about genuine change. and this fact is only threatening to those faggots who still define the master's house as their only means of support

And please let us know in that purpose. Write down

WHY SAY NO?

Against the laughable legion of puritanical movie-stars, athletes, TV celebrities and assorted politicians' wives who tell us to "just say no" to everything from sex and drugs to dropping out of school, the surrealists put forth for the consideration of the public these modest

IMMEDIATE DEMANDS

1. Absolute sexual freedom, eroticization of everyday life, expansion of pleasure uninhibited by bourgeois notions of guilt and duty.
2. Global supersession of wage-slavery by the cultivation of inspired laziness.
3. Emancipation of children from all forms of patriarchal domination.
4. Expansion of wilderness everywhere, at all times, by any and all means.
5. Destruction of Family, Church and State — the indispensable first step toward a pleasurable life for all.

AT THE END OF THE DECADE, THE MILITARY BUDGET WAS 226 BILLION. THE FEDERAL AIDS BUDGET: 1 BILLION.

THE MILITARY EXISTS AT THE EXPENSE OF INNUMERABLY MORE BENEFICIAL SOCIAL PROGRAMS. THE MILITARY IS A REMINDER OF AN ENFORCED SOCIAL ORDER WHICH CONTINUALLY DIVERTS CRITICISM AWAY FROM ITSELF, FOCUSING ATTENTION INSTEAD UPON THE INDIVIDUAL, THE CRISIS, THE RESULT.

I hope the fundamentalists are right. I hope being queer IS a threat to American values. If that's true then try and stop me. They can KEEP their fucking country...

The military fights wars. If queers are bent on getting in then how about we start a real war.

I BELIEVE THAT THERE WILL BE A CLASH BETWEEN THOSE WHO WANT FREEDOM, JUSTICE AND EQUALITY FOR EVERYONE AND THOSE WHO WANT TO CONTINUE THE SYSTEM OF EXPLOITATION. An Open Letter to Every Homophobic Rednekkk Who's Ever Fucked With Me: -by Subhumyn

You mock me by talking in a lisp and holding a limp wrist. But get this straight (ahem): Not every queer listens to disco, says girlfriend this and girlfriend that and has a limp wrist. Someday you're gonna run into a fag with a tight fist, and you're gonna find that fist in your face, or better yet a firm finger on the trigger and you're gonna find your fucking brains hanging out the side of your head. Cuz queers ain't having it anymore. You say, "Oh, I don't hate them all, it's just if one of 'em comes up to me and asks for a date I'm gonna bust their lip." What the fuck? Why can't you just say "no?" If a womyn you don't find attractive asks you out do you punch her? (Maybe you do you ignorant fuck). You're just insecure about your own sexuality. If you were completely sure of your heterosexuality you could just blow off the pass, and take it as a compliment. But no, it's your insecurities that make you react violently.

I for one, am sick of having to be afraid every time use a public restroom, or go out at night alone, just because people like you have some complex like, you think all queers worship your body just because I look you in the eye doesn't mean I want to fuck you up the ass. It's time for you to start feeling your hate thrown back in your face. Next time you and 10 of your buddies are taking out some fag with a swing swing swing of your baseball bats. Don't be surprised if you're fucking blown away with a rat-a-tat-tat. Cuz fucking queers are taking up arms. I know I've thought about it.

So Amerikkka listen up: Queers ~~listen~~ back!

I just really love YFMA (oh, I'm blushing again, ed.K) - it's angry, sexy, funny...all the things I wish Fanorama was but sometimes fear is not. I'm sending you along the brand new issue #7 - the queer grrrl issue. Check it out then donate it to the Emma Center. #6 (which you haven't seen) was a limited edition memorial to River Phoenix - conceived, pasted-up, written & xeroxed in 5 days. #8 will be mostly boys again - it's all there (in boxes just waiting to cum together) Too bad you lost or misplaced the review for QuART - it made me kinda sick to read Collin's name being referred to as "my boy". I know ya meant no harm. We're in the process of moving in together and that's taking things to new places.

REB, Fanorama!, Suite 241, 500 Waterman Ave., East Providence, RI 02914

Owl! I apologize for referring to you (Collin) as Reb's "boy" - in the review of QuART I referred to Reb as your boy. No serious usage or putdown intended. I should rethink my use of possessive terminology, though, even in jest. And lost QuART's review for last edition (this ed. is guilty of more sins of omission and commission than even he cares to think about - even on those lonely nights).

So, you guys and your stiff rods are from Mpls...WOW it's starting to become a city like my San Fran! Do you know Satyarthi? He's got a big cock, huh? I want to ram him hard. Anyway I want to learn how to suck my own dick so since I've enclosed the address on back:
Francisco R., Carmichael, CA

So was the "how to" helpful? we want pictures!! You'll have to ask Satyarthi himself about his endowment(s). We have model releases if you're interested! [Scooby says WOOF]

Received your zine today and liked it quite a bit. Having done zines myself via FactSheetFive (the old Mike Gunerloy days)- I was taken with the Punk clip-art layout and the gritty xeroxing which lent to the point of the piece.

I thought the feisty "the hell with it" attitude good too and there was enough diversity in articles and art to keep it going though-to be honest-sometimes the text over picture and overabundance of slanted text and too many typefaces on one page got me eyesore.

ME? A gay artist turning 50 on 21 January, who has turned his apt. into a gallery space called the Missing Inaction Studio. (Photo of me and from our latest "The Hollywood Show" enclosed. How about a pic of you not sandwiched in between some hot "cross" buns!

Please, Please, Please! Could you tell me where you got the guys for the page "What you miss by being a Christian" in issue #1. I thought that your magazine review page said it was Fuzzbox #5 but I wrote to the address in Montreal (I am sure that's correct) but my envelope got sent back. So if you can help me out I would greatly appreciate it. Thanks alot. Anup, Berekely, CA

If I could find those boys I'd move to Chicago and chain myself to their typewriter. Fuzzbox is no longer (as far as I know) and if anyone out there knows where Craig and Co. are and could get us in touch, we (at least Kevin) would be eternally, slavishly, grateful!!!

Its all about how lame E.T. is. I hate the new Calvin Klein model, I like the new Tasmanian actor on BayWatch can we just not interview them. Anyway I found your address. He's the vampire under the Pansy Division. My cousin sent me this scary ad for my zine but I'm closing shop so maybe you can use it. By the Middle Ages theologians had constructed an intricate model of heaven, based on the writings of the fifth-century theologian Dionysius. They divided the heavenly host into nine choirs, each with its own task. Contrary to the mocking of modern skeptics, medieval theologians did not spend time debating how many angels could dance on the head of a pin. They had far more serious enterprises in mind. In their layered architecture of heaven, the highest angels were the seraphim and cherubim, those closest to God in nature, who exist to worship him. The thrones bring justice; dominions regulate life in heaven; the virtues work miracles; the powers protect mankind from evil; the principalities are concerned with the welfare of nations; and the archangels and angels serve as guides and messengers to individual human beings.

Kevin: Thanks for your advice reply to my request, even though your response is going to stop revolving but I've mixed response to Your Ass My Face.

1. There are mundane gripes; too small print, graphics and or photos that resemble blobs of shit stain... maybe that eludes to your subtitle, something about "notes on toilet paper."

2. The spirit of the zine seems in fact, although I detect a tiny-dick complex. i.e., "maybe thou protest too much" syndrome.

3. Zines as an excuse for a life. Yes zines are an unlimited, unedited expression of self and do serve a function to inform, especially in a way that supplies your narcissistic needs (which all art does anyway, but that's another story) those of a similar ilk. But its only a big fucking footnote. The real question is how do you show up in your life. Is it all, as Ayn Rand said, a "stylized version of a stylized version of yourself?" Meaning, people assume that if they can look, talk, walk in a way that resembles some quality that they lack they then possess that quality. I've yet to see proof in my life that this is true. Most people lie to themselves their entire life, get older, crystallize around that lie i.e., start torturing or tormenting other people to make sure that they are shoring their lie up and then get even older and die. A stain on life. That's all about 99.99999999 percent of the population ever does. Pffft.

4. I did sense some genuine sincerity in your efforts. A lot of humor and successful lampooning. Good tongue and cheek juxtapositions of labels, images, icons and any attempt to represent religion for the toxic, retroactive, degenerative thing that it is OK by me.

5. Keep up the good work and remember that Jesus loves your queer little ass.

6. Send me a photo of yourself. I'll do same (will I need to fill out a model release.)

Peace, love and understanding

Frederick

Wow! Talk about a fantastic 2nd issue!! I really enjoyed YAMF #2 so much good stuff in it it's hard to say what I like the most. Well, I guess if I had to pick a few I think they would be the "Pheromone" page - very good article! I also liked the drawing of the dude in the wheelchair getting sucked off was totally brilliant! so often people w/handicaps are forgotten when it comes down to sex, so I thought that drawing was right on! Another great article the "chicken porn" page, and the "rape the rapist" page was superb!!! plus the rude + dirty photos are always a turn on. good! I thank for sending it my way. hey, see you in the next issue!

Dear YFMA

As to your zine, I dunno, maybe when I was younger and part of the local alternative underground I could've gotten into this but except for the centerfold spread re straight-bashing (about time!) this just isn't my cup of tea. I don't know why so many young gays are such devout atheists -- depicting Christ with an erection, slipping symbolic rubbers over Catholic gravestones -- I find it veryh offensive, at any rate. Act-Up crashing Cardinal O'Connor's diatribes in NYC was great; trashing Jesus and desecrating gravesites is not. Although I think Colorad's ruling was extreme, the charges sound justifiable; I think the punishment should fit the crime the, say, a couple of months as orderlies in a Catholic hospital.

Oh, re that guy you used in your "Heterosexual? Suck My Dick" design: according to my source, the model's name is Jon Thomas, the pix is from November 1987 by Old Reliable Studio, and he was 20 yrs old, 5'9", and 160 lbs at the time. Thought you'd might like to know.

Los Angeles,

In the midst of a day filled to the brim with work and family, I had the misfortune of selecting a December issue for a few minutes of selecting. I browsed. Misfortune because I was confronted with an article on Hillary Clinton complete with pictures that tried to conceal her unflattering hips and ankles.

I resent her inclusion in a fashion magazine, who struggle to remain a size four, resent being told that this dowdy trump is fashionable. If I had wanted political comment, I would have elected to spend my free moment with Business Week or The Economist.

CRIMINALIZING HIV

BY PIERCE MILLS • MINNESOTA AIDS PROJECT

TRANSMISSION

The Minnesota Legislature will be voting on two bills during this session that would have a profound negative effect on the gay community. One proposes to expand the existing sex offender testing law; the other would criminalize the transmission of HIV. The Minnesota AIDS Project (MAP) opposes both of these bills.

or assault laws. HIV-specific legislation would only create a false sense of security that the danger of infection has been removed.

Furthermore, if the proposed legislation passed, people would be discouraged from "attending" a hearing or from being tested or from coming with the voters for notification.

Making a Death Sentence a Misdemeanor

Strictly interpreted, an amendment passed by the state House of Representatives last week will make unprotected sex a criminal offense. For the second consecutive year, members of the House have attempted to criminalize a disease.

Introduced by Rep. Steve Sviggum, IR-Kenyon, the amendment reads: "Any person who engages in behavior that has been demonstrated epidemiologically to transmit HIV" will be subject to imprisonment if they "knew or had reason to know that such behavior might result in transmission of HIV." Slipped into the crime bill last Thursday at midnight, the Legislature's bold attack on people living with HIV passed 118 to 20.

Bob Tracy, public policy director at the Minnesota AIDS Project, cites late-night lethargy and election-year crime hysteria as the root causes of all the nonsense in the House. Tracy hopes that reason will prevail.

House OKs bill denying funds for teaching about homosexuality

WASHINGTON (AP)—Amid a bitter personal debate between two congressmen, the House approved a Missouri lawmaker's amendment denying federal funds to school districts that teach children about homosexuality.

Rep. Mel Hancock, a Republican from Springfield, sought to bar public funds to school districts with activities and programs for students that support homosexuality. The bill passed in the Senate, as it did last year.

"This law is both discriminatory and harassing," he says. "It also starts to work at cross purposes with our public health laws. We've been trying to get people to get tested. [But with this legislation], the incentive to get tested is greatly reduced."

The fundamental revolution of culture is the liberation of the sexual pattern; the work of freeing ourselves from our enslavement to our masochistic, sadistic, neorotic, lonely, depressed character. This is no "dreaming", this is not "utopian", this is fundamental human need: to be free of agony, to be free of a psycho-sexual mentality that constantly gives birth to systems of slavery. But the anal notion of a politically correct form of sexuality is just as bad. Lesbian activist Amber Hollibaugh insists that wimmin continue to push forward the frontiers of female sexuality. She has called for a new type of speakout. Where wimmin admit their secret yearnings: for all those wimmin who don't cum gently, and don't want to; who don't know yet what they want but intend to find out; who are the lovers of butch or femme wimmin; who like fucking with men; practice consensual s/m; who feel more like faggots than dykes; who love dildos.

NEW SUPER STARS IN

THE ULTIMATE

MASTURBATION EXPERIENCE

So this is the year of the queer. Stonewall 25. Liberals in the whitehouse. Record numbers o ffolk at "Pride" events across this fair land.

RAVE ON!!!

As the visibility of gay people in the US increases, so do the number of crimes committed against them. Gay bashing has escalated and the number of hate crimes against us has increased by 31% according to one survey I've read. And drive-by slurs have given way to nail-studded bats and switchblades. Examples, you ask?

In 1989 a Los Angeles sheriff's department patrol car pulled over two gay men driving home from a Halloween party. The police yanked one of the men out of the car, yelled anti-gay slurs at him, knocked him down, handcuffed him, beat him with a nightstick, and repeatedly kicked him in the side, causing broken bones and nerve damage (oh, surely, not the police! To protect and to serve). Pipe wielding skinheads yelling "Kill the faggot" beat a gay man unconscious in Laguna Beach, CA. Outside a bar in Burlington VT, a gay man was beaten until he suffered numerous skull fractures and brain damage.

Incidents in Colorado, the only state so far to prohibit queer-protection laws,, are representative of the increasing frequency and severity of violence against queers. In one incident, anti-gay-isms were yelled at a straight man at a convenience store and he was shot to death because they thought he was gay. In another incident, bashers struck a gay man twice in the face as he was leaving a bar. They knocked him to the sidewalk causing his skull to hit the concrete so hard that people across the street heard the impact. He died two days later.

In Kentucky in September of 1990, assailants beat a young gay man with a tire iron, locked him in a car trunk with a bunch of snapping turtles and then tried to set fire to the car. He was left with severe brain damage.

In a series of attacks in San Fancisco in a park people's testicles were cut off and were stuffed in their mouths.

Two men shouting anti-gay slurs punched a gay man, stepped on his face with spiked shoes and beat him with tree branches. One of the "men" gouged his finger into the victim's eyes and poked a stick into the victim's eardrum, puncturing it.

A gay couple were forced out of their home in Ft. Lauderdale after repeated harassment and threats by neighbors. Attacks included a rock thrown through the window with the message "Move out you Fags" painted on it. Neighbors also dumped beer cans and glass shards in their pool, mowed down trees and flowers, and shot arrows at them when they sat in the back yard.

After learning that a gay couple planned on opening a bed-and-breakfast in Kentucky, townspeople hung effigies from trees along their driveway and left threats on their answering machine that "men armed with deer rifles and grenades would attack the 10-acre

In Winona, MN, at an apartment where a group of young men lived who were perceived to be gay, their windows were shot out, gasoline lit on the property spelling out in flames the name of one of the teenagers who lived there and then 30 people gathered in front of their apartment waving baseball bats and clubs and hollering "Kill the faggots. Kill the faggots."

Whatever the method, the damage inflicted in gaybashings is usually severe. Victims who aren't killed are often left with multiple skull fractures, brain damage, punctured lungs, and blindness. Attacks against lesbians often include sexual assault or rape while being told they "need a real man." Alcoholism and substance abuse are high among queer people and suicide is the leading cause of death among queer teenagers. The negative effects of hate messages are real and immediate for the victims.

Many churches are a source of the hatred many people feel toward queers and that's where they get their sense of self-righteousness - that they are doing something society approves of or at least silently condones. After the Republican National Convention in 1992 the Philadelphia Lesbian and Gay Task Force reported increased violent attacks against queers for the immediately following four days. The Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Colorado reported a 275% increase in bias-crime complaints after Amendment 2 passed. KEVIN

Gay-rights activists not jailed in desecration

By Ginny Meckibben
Journal Post Staff Writer

GOLDEN — Four gay-rights activists won't be jailed after pleading guilty in Jefferson County yesterday to vandalizing Mount Olivet Cemetery last year and apologizing to the Archdiocese of Colorado and families who suffered emotional harm over the desecration of 300 burial plots.

"It is with our deepest, heartfelt sincerity that we apologize to those families and individuals with loved ones buried at Mount Olivet Cemetery who were offended or caused undue grief as a result of the Jan. 14, 1993, political protest," the written apology said.

The apology was part of a plea bargain between prosecutors and defendants Nadine R. Connolly, 36; Lorna Jane Wheeler, 32; Taylor St. John, 28; and Madrid St. Angelo, 28. The two men and two women also agreed to perform 80 hours each of community service and to pay the estimated $1,700 needed to repair a damaged crucifix.

All but Connolly will offer to work off the community service with the archdiocese. Connolly, whose attorney said she is philosophically opposed to the church, will work elsewhere.

In exchange for their guilty pleas, each of the four defendants was granted a deferred judgment to a charge of criminal mischief, the single felony count leveled. If they stay out of trouble for two years, their guilty pleas and charges will be erased from files.

Please see CEMETERY on 9B

The activists also were ordered by Judge James Zimmerman to serve two years probation for their guilty pleas to a misdemeanor charge of desecration. Attorneys for the group said each plans to return to homes out-of-state for probation supervision.

The four defendants were arrested in the early hours of Jan. 14, shortly after they allegedly placed hundreds of plastic bags bearing the painted word "AIDS" over tombstones. Pricards found at the cemetery carried messages that read "Jesus Died of AIDS" and "BYM (Bleached Virgin Mary) Sez No Lamer No Sex." The protest was aimed at the church's opposition to gay sex and condoms. A large stone cross located in the center of the cemetery also was damaged. St. Angelo hinted that demonstrators other than the ones charged in the incident had broken the cross.

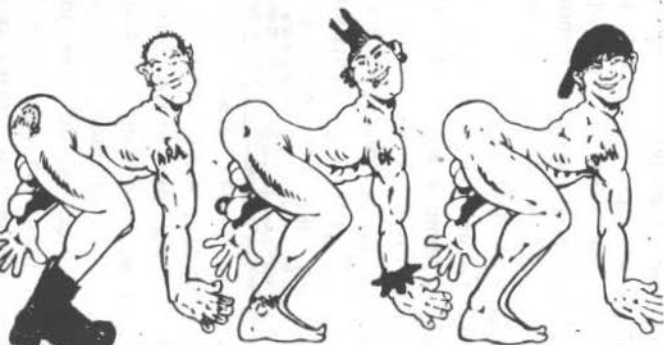

A Denver Archdiocese official yesterday said church authorities found the demonstration at burial sites "inappropriate."

"What was most disturbing was intrusion on sacred space. And that leaves a feeling of violation among the families. Those feelings can't be settled in court," Fran Maier said.

Maier said, however, that archdiocese officials have expressed

BECAUSE I LIVE IN COLORADO, MY PREOCCUPATION LIES WITH ANTI-GAY RIGHTS PROPOSALS THAT MAY BE ON THE BRINK OF A HALF-DOZEN OR MORE STATES THIS AUTUMN.

AFTER SEVERAL REPETITIVE STRATEGY PROTECTIONS FOR GAYS TALKED LAST YEAR TO CINCINNATI, A TOWN IN OHIO, A TOWN IN NEW HAMPSHIRE, AND TWO OREGON COMMUNITIES, SUCCESS OF SIMILAR PROPOSALS HAVE SUCCEEDED TO TARGETING GAY-FRIENDLY LIVES IN CALIFORNIA STATE, OREGON (MAY) AND IDAHO. CALIFORNIA, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, OHIO AND NEW HAMPSHIRE MAY ALSO FIND ANTI-GAY PROPOSALS COME UP FOR A POPULAR VOTE.

THE MATH OF THE GAY COMMUNITY IS NOT NECESSARILY DISMISSIVE. NO GROUP OF PEOPLE - BLACK, HISPANIC, AMERICAN, SOUTH AFRICAN - IS UNITED ON ANY ISSUE. EVEN SIMILAR-THINK GROUPS LIKE ANTI-ABORTION DEMOCRATS, DISAGREE ON HOW TO APPROACH THEIR GOALS.

WHAT WOULD BE WASTEFUL IS THE FAILURE OF THE DISPARATE ELEMENTS OF THE HOMOSEXUAL POPULATION TO GET BEHIND THE EFFORT TO DEBATE PROPOSALS TO LEGITIMIZE DISCRIMINATION AGAINST QUEERS.

THE FIRST REASON FOR THAT MAY ANXIOUS GROUP IS THAT ITS MEMBERS CAN UNWITTINGLY CATER TO OTHERS IN THAT SAME PHOENIX FOR PETTY REASONS. SPONTANEOUS GAYS RESIST QUEERS FOR ALLEGEDLY GROSS AND HUMILIATING A TWO NAME AND REPRESENTATIVE SPECIMENS; HAVE PURE GAYS FEEL ALIENATED, NOT ONLY FROM OTHERS AS A WHOLE, BUT ALSO FROM THE SUPPORTED LEADERS OF THE VIRGIL GAY COMMUNITY; HINDERS AIDS ACTIVISTS AVAILABLE WITH THE MORE RARE ACT-UP AND STRATEGIES FOR SECURING MORE COMMUNITY FUNDING.

WHEN ALL OF US ARE INTERESTED WITH A DREAM OF OUR OWN RIGHTS, WE NEED TO FOCUS ON THE BIG PICTURE, LEAD TO COMPROMISE FOR THE GREATER GOOD, AND THINGS SHOULD A LITTLE FURTHER AND FURTHER OUR OWN PROPOSALS.

EVERY QUEER WHO REMAINS AWARE OF THE ANTI-GAY CAMPAIGN. THOSE WHO ARE NOT ACTIVE IN A POLITICAL, ENVIRONMENTAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL ORGANIZATION SHOULD CONSIDER HOW THEY CAN BEST USE THEIR TALENTS WITH SUCH GROUPS. THOSE WHO ARE NOT OUT SHOULD CONSIDER COMING OUT TO SHOW THEMSELVES THAT QUEERS ARE A LINE, A PERSON ELSE, TO PUT A HUMAN FACE ON THE

LABEL "GAY"

ASTORIA THE STATE COURT HAS THROWN CALIFORNIA'S ANTI-GAY SERVICE UNCONSTITUTIONAL. THE LAW WOULD PASS TODAY IF A VOTE WERE HELD TODAY. A MAJORITY OF THREE SEVEN VOTES TO UNDETERMINE THAT GAYS DO CANNOT ARE SEEKING EQUAL, NOT SPECIAL RIGHTS. IT IS DIFFICULT TO CONTEST THE OUTPOST OF A COMPARISON. BECAUSE BY WELL-THINKED, FAMILY VALUES RELIGIOUS GROUPS, MANY OF WHICH ARE HOMOGENEOUS TO CONSIDER SIMILAR.

FOURTEENTH, THE PASSAGE OF THE ANTI-GAY ISSUE BROUGHT MANY QUEERS OUT OF THE CLOSET. BEING OUT OF THE CLOSET WHO CAME OUT IN 1993, I'VE HAD HATE TO SEE SUCH LAWS PASSED IN MINNESOTA OR ANY OTHER STATE.

GAY RIGHTS MAY BE THE GREATEST SOCIAL ISSUE OF THE 1990S. NO MATTER HOW YOU PERCEIVE YOUR ROLE IN THE PHYSICAL GAY COMMUNITY, YOU SHOULD BE A PART OF THE STRUGGLE TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS.

I CAN'T EVEN

Steve found a tool box, took out a hammer, and used it to smash the toilet, the bath, the basin. He switched off the water and pulled out the plumbing. Steve was very considerate. He'd not wanted to flood out the decent working people who live beneath this piece of scum. He switched off the fuse and tore out the electrics.

Scumbag arrived home at five-thirty-five. He shut the door behind him and didn't have time to wonder what the smells were because two strong pairs of arms grabbed him with the speed of striking cobras. Butcher held the bastard from behind while Steve shoved a bar of soap into his mouth and then taped up the hole. Butcher held tight while Steve bound the struggling Swede hand and foot. They carried the bundle through to the lounge and dumped it in the middle of the floor.

"Guess what shitbag?" Butcher didn't wait for the reply he knew the scab couldn't make. "We wrecked your home."

"And," Steve continued, "the reason we've wrecked your home is coz you're the shitty little bastard who fucked over a comrade. An act you may soon regret." "We'll start gently," Steve soothed as he got out his cock and pissed over the bastard.

Steve pulled down the fuck's trousers and told Butch to sit on the Swede's back and hold the cheeks of his ass apart. Steve squatted down and pulled out his blade.

"You know something?" Steve was starting to really get into his trip. "You're shit and I'm gonna make sure you remember that."

He inserted the knife blade into the bastard's ass and made a nick. The Swede flinched.

"The anus is a very sensitive part of the body, it's very painful when it's damaged." Steve spoke very distinctly; very softly; very slowly.

He made a deeper cut. The guy writhed under the skillful incisions of the sadistic anarchist surgeon.

"It's a good thing you've got soap in your mouth or the neighbours might wonder what your doing."

He worked the blade round the scumbag's hole savagely lacerating this rim of dark pleasures. Steve got up. Butcher followed. A river of blood was flowing from the Swede's ass. Steve turned the man over, untaped his mouth and took out the soap. The Swede was moaning, his chest heaving, barely conscious...

"That's a lesson you won't forget in a hurry." Steve's mouth was set hard. He too was breathing fast.

"Now I'm gonna be kind - put you out of your misery."

Steve's steel toed boot slammed into the guy's skull.

SHOCKING DISGUSTING
Anarchists rot their brains out sniffing glue

After that Steve clammed right up. He was rattled. He sipped at his beer moodily and when he felt someone unzip his fly, massage his cock to the full height of erection and then suck it deep into their throat, he didn't even bother to find out who it was. One thing was for sure, whoever it was had wanted to do it pretty badly as they'd crawled under at least one table to get to him. Steve couldn't fight the tension mounting in his groin - he had no choice in the matter, groaning pleasurably and came.

Rat, a seventeen year old streetpunk from a local militant squat crawled up onto his lap, kissed him, and asked him as he fingered Steve's limp dick if he'd "come back and cheer yourself up."

"Another time, I've got too much to do right now, but I'm sure Tiny would love to go home with ya, wouldn't ya Tiny," Steve concluded looking over at the punk.

"Yeah," replied Tiny, beaming.

Tiny got up, took Rat's hand, and lead him out of the bar. Steve put his dick back in his pants, downed the last of his beer, and stalked out the door of the bar to 'think' and ignoring the calls of "Hey Steve, where're ya going?"

Anarchists and ultra-leftists are the worst kind of politicians. They are the most billigerent in their claims of objectivity.

POST-ANARCHISM ANARCHY

THE ASSOCIATION FOR ONTOLOGICAL ANARCHY gathers in conclave, black turbans & shimmering robes, sprawled on shirazi carpets sipping bitter coffee, smoking long chibouk & sibi. QUESTION: What's our position on all these recent defections & desertions from anarchism (esp. in California-Land): condemn or condone? Purge them or hail them as advance-guard? Gnostic elite ... or traitors?

Actually, we have a lot of sympathy for the deserters & their various critiques of anarchISM. Like Sinbad & the Horrible Old Man, anarchism staggers around with the corpse of a Martyr magically stuck to its shoulders—haunted by the legacy of failure & revolutionary masochism—stagnant backwater of lost history.

Between tragic Past & impossible Future, anarchism seems to lack a Present—as if afraid to ask itself, here & now, WHAT ARE MY TRUE DESIRES?—& what can I DO before it's too late? ... Yes, imagine yourself confronted by a sorcerer who stares you down balefully & demands, "What is your True Desire?" Do you hem & haw, stammer, take refuge in ideological platitudes? Do you possess both Imagination & Will, can you both dream & dare—or are you the dupe of an impotent fantasy?

Look in the mirror & try it ... (for one of your masks is the face of a sorcerer) ...

The anarchist "movement" today contains virtually no Blacks, Hispanics, Native Americans or children ... even tho in theory such genuinely oppressed groups stand to gain the most from any anti-authoritarian revolt. Might it be that anarchISM offers no concrete program whereby the truly deprived might fulfill (or at least struggle realistically to fulfill) real needs &

If so, then this failure would explain not only anarchism's lack of appeal to the poor & marginal, but also the disaffection & desertions from within its own ranks. Demos, picket-lines & reprints of 19th century classics don't add up to a vital, daring conspiracy of self-liberation. If the movement is to grow rather than shrink, a lot of deadwood will have to be jettisoned & some risky ideas embraced.

The potential exists. Any day now, vast numbers of americans are going to realize they're being force-fed a load of reactionary boring hysterical artificially-flavored crap. Vast chorus of groans, puking & retching ... angry mobs roam the malls, smashing & looting ... etc., etc. The Black Banner could provide a focus for the outrage & channel it into an insurrection of the Imagination. We could pick up the struggle where it was dropped by Situationism in '68 & Autonomia in the seventies, & carry it to the next stage. We could have revolt in our times—& in the process, we could realize many of our True Desires, even if only for a season, a brief Pirate Utopia, a warped free-zone in the old Space/Time continuum.

If the A.O.A. retains its affiliation with the "movement," we do so not merely out of a romantic predilection for lost causes—or not entirely. Of all "political systems," anarchism (despite its flaws, & precisely because it is neither political nor a system) comes closest to our understanding of reality, ontology, the nature of being. As for the deserters ... we agree with their critiques, but note that they seem to offer no new powerful alternatives. So for the time being we prefer to concentrate on changing anarchism from within. Here's our program, comrades:

1. Work on the realization that psychic racism has replaced overt discrimination as one of the most disgusting aspects of our society. Imaginative participation in other cultures, esp. those we live with.

2. Abandon all ideological purity. Embrace "Type-3" anarchism (to use Bob Black's pro-tem slogan): neither collectivist nor individualist. Cleanse the temple of vain idols, get rid of the Horrible Old Man, the ...

3. Anti-work or "Zerowork" movement extremely important, including a radical & perhaps violent attack on Education & the serfdom of children.

4. Develop american samizdat network, replace outdated publishing/propaganda tactics. Pornography & popular entertainment as vehicles for radical re-education.

5. In music the hegemony of the 2/4 & 4/4 beat must be overthrown. We need a new music, totally insane but life-affirming, rhythmically subtle yet powerful, & we need it NOW.

6. Anarchism must wean itself away from evangelical materialism & banal 2-dimensional 19th century scientism. "Higher states of consciousness" are not mere SPOOKS invented by evil priests. The orient, the occult, the tribal cultures possess techniques which can be "appropriated" in true anarchist fashion. Without "higher states of consciousness," anarchism ends & dries itself up into a form of misery, a whining complaint. We need a practical kind of "mystical anarchism," devoid of all New Age shit-&-shinola, & inexorably heretical & anti-clerical; avid for all new technologies of consciousness & metanoia—a democratization of shamanism, intoxicated & serene.

7. Sexuality is under assault, obviously from the Right, more subtly from the avant-pseud "post-sexuality" movement, & even more subtly by Spectacular Recuperation in media & advertising. Time for a major step forward in SexPol awareness, an explosive reaffirmation of the polymorphic eras—(even & especially in the face of plague & gloom)—a literal glorification of the senses, a doctrine of delight. Abandon all world-hatred & shame.

8. Experiment with new tactics to replace the outdated baggage of Leftism. Emphasize practical, material & personal benefits of radical networking. The times do not appear propitious for violence or militancy, but surely a bit of sabotage & imaginative disruption is never out of place. Plot & conspire, don't bitch & moan. The Art World in particular deserves a dose of "Poetic Terrorism."

9. The despatialization of post-Industrial society provides fest as a form of oppression (homelessness, gentrification, architectural depersonalization, the erasure of Nature, etc.) The communes of the sixties tried to circumvent these forces but failed. The question of land refuses to go away. How can we separate the concept of space from the mechanisms of control? The territorial gangsters, the Nation/States, have hogged the entire map. Who can invent for us a cartography of autonomy, who can draw a map that includes our desires?

AnarchISM ultimately implies anarchy—& anarchy is chaos. Chaos is the principle of continual creation... & Chaos never died

A.O.A. Plenary Session
March '87, NYC

Inside in the storm hurling itself against the street the men huddled, thoroughly involved in evasive action. Greetings from Utopia.
 One they become helpless junkies, confined to their environment, non-plussed and uncomprehending.

 The earth shuddered and rose to meet it's maker.
 When will he come. In the end it fell away; they had discovered (me) and lost.

 And as always he/I/it welcomed the moment of action.

 he'll tell you;
 he'll know.
 ask him.
 ask him.

is really the sound of a flag's skull

 smashing against the pavement.²

he knows;
 ask him.
 ask him

who knows what reeks in the night air comes from the flames shooting out of the nigger-dyke's house, where skin-headed boys gather.³

he knows;
 ask him.

Judy Garland was buried on the day of the Stonewall riots, twenty five years ago.

Next month, if all goes well, Judy's daughter, Liza Minnelli, may be participating in the closing ceremonies of Stonewall 25, at the rally in Central Park on June 26.

The details are not yet final, but Ms. Minnelli and her representatives have been cooperative and enthusiastic. They want to make it happen and we want to make it happen.

hat makes it all the more important that we meet our budget immediately, to pay deposits on equipment and staging rentals, hire security and the other expenses necessary to produce an event of this caliber.

Your immediate and urgent response is critical. Here's why:

If we cannot raise $72,000 by May 31, I will be forced to consult with the board and recommend that we dramatically scale back the historic rally in C

This would be painful and it would be, quite frankly, a humiliation happen.

BECAUSE Gay men and Lesbians are discriminated against in housing and employment and because how we act is more important than who we are and if we get harassed it's our problem and if we get attacked we provoked it and if we raise our voice we're flaunting ourselves and if we enjoy sex we're perverts and if we have AIDS we deserve it and if we march with pride we're recruiting children and if we stand up for our rights we're overstepping our boundaries and because we are forced constantly to question our own self worth as human beings and if we have a relationship with someone of the same sex it is not recognized and we are told our love is not "real" and because Gay and Lesbian history is virtually absent from literature and because homophobia is sanctioned by the Supreme Court and for lot's and lot's of other reasons.
